The Committee on Water Works reported Superintendent's bills aggregating $662 66, and monthly bills amounting to $66 28. Bills ordered paid. The committee also made the following recommendations, which were adopted: that Walter Marshall be awarded the contract for furnishing the water works, city building, city prison and lockup with coal for one year from the lat of April next, at 6 cents per bushel; that the contract for furnishing the water works with castings for one year, commencing on the lat of April next, be awarded to A. J. Sweeney & Son at 2 49-100 cents per pound; that April next, be awarded to be a second; that A. J. Sweeney & Co. be paid $600 on their contract for new shaft and gearing for the water works. EXTENSION OF GAS MAINS. The Committee on Lights recommended several changes in the streets in which the gas mains are to be laid when extended to the Seventh and Eighth Wards, and also a change in the manner of crossing the river to the Seventh Ward. The committee were of 'the opinion that the river route would be the speediest one of supplying the Seventh Ward with gas, as the main can be laid across the river in half the 'time a tank and holder can be built. Believing that the loan to pay for built. Believing that the loan to pay for the extensions can be had at a less rate would make an appropriation of $500 to pay for the preparation and publication of a history of Wheeling, that proper persons could be found for the purpose

Mr. Blair suggested that the whole matter had been submitted to the Committee with power to act, and therefore it was not a proper question for consideration of the Council, being only the report of the Committee's action.

The reading of the resolution under which the Committee acted was called for, and being read showed that the Committee was not authorized to compromise anything with Mr. Crumbacker, but to ascertain the damages sustained by Mr. H. K. Brown.

Mr. Egerter said the acknowledgment of the Committee was that they did not believe that the city was responsible, and yet they allowed themselves to be frightened by Contractor Crumbacker into compromising an unjust claim. They had not the courage to stand up for the rights of the city.

A resolution was offered that the Committee on Streets and Alleys report some plan for the permanent improvement of the streets occupied by the street railway from 24th to 45th. Read and laid on the table. lation to the interest on the gas loan was

THE RANKIN COMBINATION.—"The Two Orphans," as played by the Rankin Combination last night, was the best performance of the play ever given in Wheeling. McKee Rankin, S. W. Percy, W. B. Arnold; J. W. Summers, T. B. Baker, Miss Kitty Blanchard, Sadie Raddliffe, Addie Kunkel, Ivan C. Michels, Dora Desmond, Maggie Metzger and Jennie E. Werts were very good in their different roles. This superb combination remains every night this week, including Saturday matinee, excepting Saturday evenday matinee, excepting Saturday evenevery night this week, including Saturday matinee, excepting Saturday evening, when the great young American actor, Frank Mayo, appears in his great specialty entitled "Day Crockett." The Rankin Combination will produce tomorrow evening the most successful play ever presented before an American audience, Lester Wallace's beautiful comedy entitled "Rosesdale." On Friday evening a benefit will be tendered the popular actor, McKee Rankin, when Silbert's comedy of "Sweetheart" and who killed Cock Robin" will be given Saturday at 2 p. M., after which this splendid company leaves for Philadelphia.

Two ORPHANS.-Owing to the Two ORPHANS.—Owing to the great success made by the McKee Rankin Combination, Manager Hamilton has re-engaged them for the balance of the week, except Saturday night, they closing with a Saturday matinee, the Mayo Combination appearing Saturday night. The Rankin Combination will leave Saturday serving for Philladelphin where they are ning for the state of the same than the same propriet of the same part of the s Rankin Combination will leave Saturday evening for Philadelphia, where they go to fill a lengthy Centennial engagement. Mr. Rankin and his superb company have made many friends here, and will receive a warm reception should they ever return to our Nail City, and we trust they will soon welcome us with another visit PROGRAMME FOR THE WEEK.—The beautiful play of "The Two Orphana" will be presented by the McKee Rankin party at the Opera House this afternoon and to-night; on Thursday evening the same party will present the popular English drama entitled "Rosedale," and on Eriday evening fillert's latest sensarangish drama entitled "Rosedale," and on Friday evening Gilbert's latest sensa-tion, "Sweethearts," and "Who Killed Cock Robin," when Mr. Rankin will take a benefit. On Saturday evening, Frank Mayo will appear in his inimitable char-acter of "Davy Crockett."

RARE CASE OF ENLARGEMENT OF THE RARE CASE OF ENLARGEMENT OF THE LIVER.—A day or two ago a man named Lindsay, who resided in East Wheeling, died from enlargement of the liver. Two of our most expert physicians held a post morten upon the body, and upon taking out the liver found that it weighed sixteen pounds and twelve ounces. This may be considered a remarkable occurrence, as the average weight of a man's liver is about four or five pounds. And what is more remarable, the deceased was a very small man. a very small man.

TESTIMONIAL WORTHILY BESTOWED, TESTIMONIAL WORTHIAN BESTOWED.—
A very interesting episode occurred in the proceedings of the Appeal Board of the Fourth Street M. E. Church last evening. The members of the Board, desiring to manifest their appreciation of the liberality and untring activity of Henry K. List, Esq., in everything pertaining to the interest of the church, had quietly arranged for the presentation to Mr. List of a copy of "McClintick's & Strongs Cyclopella of Biblical Literature" in six vols. handsomely bound and suitably inscribed, together with thirteen beautiful photographic views of scenes in Jerusalem and the Holy Land.

together with threeh graphic views of scenesin Jerusalem and the Holy Land.

Mr. List had not the slightest knowledge of the design of the Board, but it had become known to many of the ministers and delegates, now in the city attending the session of Conference and the class rooms of the church were filled with an interested audience when Mr. List entered. Dr. Reiley, in some happy remarks, presented the testimonial, and alluded to the Cyclopedia as the work of Methodist brains, and were now presented to a worker in every good word and work in the church.

When the Doctor concluded his remarks he expressed the hope that Mr. List might long be spared, and that the blessing of Heaven might rest upon him. The hearty amens that arose from the assembly clearly showed that it was a Methodist one, and that there was unusual and heartfelt interes was unusual and heartfelt interes in the proceedings.

Mr. List was deeply touched, and

Mr. List was deeply touched, and responded very feelingly, after which the the brethren joined in ainging a suitable hymn. The proverbial modesty and retiring disposition of Mr. List would render the ordinary cut and dried presentations very distantful to him, but the really deep interest displayed by his brethren in this affair cannot but assuit being of the real affection and interest of im of the real affection and interest of
